BOOK REVIEW PREPARATION

Reviews should be submitted in English, and should be typewritten in double spacing throughout (including references, if used). References, if used, should be typed separately at the end of the manuscript. All pages should be numbered serially. Reviews should be submitted in a complete and finished form.

Please include the following sections in your review:

- BOOK BEING REVIEWED

Title of book being reviewed

Authorship (or editors) of book being reviewed

Place of publication: Publisher, Date of Publication, Number of Pages, (paperback or hardback), List Price.
ISBN

Example:

- REVIEW

The text of the review, generally between 1200 to 2400 words.

- REFERENCES (if used)

If used, please limit references to the most pertinent. Generally references in book reviews should not exceed a total of 10.

In text reference citations

Simple citation with no page numbers specified: (Dibble 1995)

Two authors: (McBrearty and Brooks 2000)

Three or more authors: (Clark et al. 1988)

Citations with pages, figures or tables specified: (Olszewski 2003: 232), (Rosenberg 1988: Figure 1), (Coinman 2005: Table 2)

Please list citations in the text in alphabetical, not chronological, order, e.g., (Clark et al. 1988; Dibble 1995; McBrearty and Brooks 2000). Semicolons are used to separate works by different authors, and commas are used to separate distinct, chronologically ordered works by the same author.

Reference style

References should be listed alphabetically at the end of the review. Please use either American Antiquity or Journal of Human Evolution style for references, but do not mix styles.
